3. Disclosure of your personal information

Bimba may disclose your personal information for the business purposes to Bimba affiliates, contractors and to products and services providers and advisors who require the personal information data to assist us in supporting our business (e.g. CRM platforms, ordering and logistics companies enterprise technology platforms, legal advisers). These entities are subject to written contracts and authorized to use your personal information only as necessary to provide these products and services to Bimba. Bimba also discloses personal information to third parties where required or permissible by applicable law to perform our legitimate business activities. Some of these third parties may use this information for the purposes of serving relevant advertisements and/or sell that information to other businesses for advertising and other purposes.

You can opt out of such selling or sharing of your personal information by completing the attached form California Request Form.

4. Retention and deletion of your personal information

Bimba retains your personal information only for the time required to fulfil the business purposes outlined in Section 1 of this Supplement. For further details on retention and deletion, please see Data Controllers within the Global Privacy Notice.

5. Your rights

In addition to the statutory rights outlined in the Global Privacy Notice, all California residents are provided certain additional rights with respect to their personal information under the California Consumer Privacy Act 2018 ("CCPA"). These are –

a) The Right to Know

You have the right to request the following information relating to your personal information we have collected and disclosed in the last 12 months:

- The categories of personal information we have collected about you;
- The categories of sources of the personal information;
- The categories of personal information that we have disclosed to third parties for a business purpose, and the categories of recipients to whom this information was disclosed;
- The categories of personal information we have sold about you (if any), and the categories of third parties to whom the information was sold; and
- The business or commercial purposes for collecting or, if applicable, selling the personal information.
- Copy of specific pieces of personal information we have collected from you;

b) The Right to Request Deletion

You have the right to request the deletion of personal information we have collected from you, subject to certain exceptions.

c) The Right to Correct

You have the right to request that Bimba correct inaccurate information processed by Bimba (e.g., to ensure Bimba has correct and current contact details in its payroll system). Note that this right is subject to some limitations.

d) The Right to Opt-out of Sales / Sharing

You have the right to opt out of sale or sharing of personal information.

e) The Right against Non-discrimination

Bimba will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your CCPA rights.

To exercise your rights under CCPA, please contact the entity you work with. Please specify in your request what personal information you would like to access, correct, opt-out or delete or complete this California Request Form.

We will first acknowledge receipt of your request within 10 business days after receipt of your request. We will provide a substantive response to your request within 45 calendar days after its receipt. If we require more time (up to 90 days or the permitted timeframe), we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing.

Only you or an authorized agent (as described below) may make a verifiable consumer request related to your personal information.

• How to Authorize an Agent: You may designate an authorized agent to submit your verified consumer request on your behalf, only if the authorized agent has your written permission to do so and you have taken steps to verify your identity directly with us.

• How We Verify your Request: To respond to your request, we must verify your identity or the authority of your authorized agent. We will only use the personal information provided to us in context to verify your identity or the authority of your authorized agent to make the request. Making a verifiable consumer request does not require you to create an account with us. To allow us to verify your request, we will require that you provide at least two pieces of personal information, including your email address and phone number, that we already have in our possession. We will verify your consumer request by comparing the information you provide to information already in our possession, and take additional steps to minimize the risk of fraud.

6. Shine the Light Law

If you are a California resident, California Civil Code § 1798.83 permits you to request information regarding the disclosure of your personal information by us to third parties for the third-parties' direct marketing purposes (as those terms are defined in that statute). To make such a request, please send an email to dataprotection.US@imi-precision.com with the subject line "Shine the Light Request"
